OPEN HOUSE AT ORRHS

Principal Donald N. Gavin of the Old Rochester Regional High School announces that an Open House will be held during National Education Week. The Open House will be on November 10 between the hours of 7:00 and 9:00 P.M. Teachers will remain in designated areas and parents may visit any teacher. Student members of the Future Teachers of America Association will serve as ushers throughout the evening. Mrs. Stevens, the dietitian, assisted by members of the Future Homemakers Club, will serve refreshments in the high school cafeteria.

CONCERT AT ORRHS

On Sunday, November 15th, the Regional Symphonic Band, with Mr. Frank Scimonelli of the U. S. Navy Band as trumpet soloist, will open another exciting musical season with the first of three concerts, to be presented in the auditorium of the Old Rochester Regional High Schoo under the very able direction of John Pandolfi.

Mr. Pandolfi is well known throughout this area as an able conductor and as a talented clarinet soloist. He has performed as featured soloist with the New Orleans Symphony, the New Orleans Woodwind Quintet, the Rhode Island Philharmonic, as guest soloist with the New Bedford Symphony Orchestra, and has performed a number of times on radio and television

He has been honored by two full scholarships for advanced study at Tanglewood. He is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, is an instructor of clarinet in Marion, director of music at Tabor Academy, and conductor of the summer bands in Marion, Mattapoisett and Barnstable. We are indeed fortunate to have so talented and energetic a musician in our midst.

The Regional Symphonic Band was originally organized in 1962. It is a group of dedicated and talented professional and amateur musicians, interested in providing fine music and encouraging youthful musicians in Southeastern Massachusetts. Its members come largely from New Bedford, Fall River, Marion, Mattapoisett and Cape Cod. The organization prides itself on playing only the best compositions available for Symphonic bands.

The band appeared, fifty members strong, for a full half-hour concert on WTEV, Channel 6, Catalina for 1965 - Sculptured in classic lines, it looks fast standing still. Come in for a look at this Quick Wide Track. Arrange a test ride - you'll never be satisfied with an ordinary '65.

when it opened New Bedford's 18th annual Observance of Music Week in May of last year, and received the following praise from Earl J. Dias, Standard Times' music critic:

"Throughout the concert, the Regional Symphonic Band was distinguished for an over-all, pleasing texture of sound and for first rate performance in the ensemble's individual sections as well. In fact, this is a group of genuinely professional quality, responsive to Mr. Pandolfi's sound musicianship, capable of a wide dynamic range, alert and precise in attacks and releases."

In the past the Regional Symphonic Band has presented such outstanding soloists as Armand Ghitalla, now first trumpet with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, John Pandolfi performing on his own clarinet, and C. Alexander Peloquin, well known in this area for his work as a conductor of choral music.

This year the band is fortunate in having as its first guest soloist, Frank Scimonelli, the sensational soloist of the United States Navy Band. This musician has appeared as the featured soloist more times than any other bandsman in Navy history.

The new Regional Chorus, now rehearsing under the energetic director of Zavan Mazmanian, will perform in the second concert of the season on January 17th, in a special program combining voices with the Band. This newly formed group, it is hoped, will continue as a local, civic chorus capable of singing difficult and demanding music of the highest calibre. The third and final concert of the season is scheduled for March 7th, and will have a featured soloist.

The Regional Symphonic Band needs the support of all interested people in this area. The organization seeks to provide this community with the best in its kind of music. With its proceeds it offers an annual scholarship for an able, ambitious student at Old Rochester Regional High School, with serious plans and desires for pursuing music as a career.

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, OCTOBER 27

The Rochester Bowling League tightened up with all underdog teams upsetting the leaders. Henry Hartley dropped 373 pins to lead Hartley Saw Mill to a 2 to 1 win over Lloyds Market. Don Gifford's 367 high for Lloyds. Bob Jefferson fired a 378 as Knotty Pine Cafe tipped Hiller's Garage 2 to 1. Ed Leary's 354 tops for the Garage. Gus Johnson, with a 337, starred for Herbs TV in a 2 to 1 match with Sturtevant & Hook. Pump Giard was the big man for the losers. Stu Lawrence chipped in 398 sticks for the Woodchoppers who had to settle for only 1 point in a hard fought contest with Hartley's Garage.

great off Broadway success, has written the screen play for this film, which deals with the unusual theme of drug addiction, in an exceptionally frank and non conventional manner. "Hiroshima, Mon Amour", January 17th, in this story of a love affair between an impressionable French actress and a married Japanese architect, director Alain Resnais has combined brilliant performances, unusual cinematic techniques, and the complex theme of the dilemna confronting modern man into a true masterpiece of film-making. "The Quiet One", February 14th, this film tells the story of a young Negro boy, rejected by his parents, who is sent to the famed Wiltwyck School for treatment. There under careful guidance, he is slowly brought into the actualities of a more normal life. The cast are non-professional actors, and James Agees' stirring commentary is so moving in itself that it has been published separately. Program of short subjects, including "The Red Balloon", March 14th, the prize winning film about a little boy who makes friends with a balloon - a charming excursion into the world of childhood fantasy. "I'm All Right, Jack", April 25th, Peter Sellers gives a hilarious per-

ENTERTAINMENT OF PATIENTS AT NURSING HOM

An appeal for volunteer service at Mattapoisett Nursing Home for the entertainment of the patients there has been very gratifying. The appeal was made by the newly organized Mattapoisett Nursing Home Guild. Many patients who are able to be up and about have time on their hands and the program underway gives them a broader outlook on life.

Mattapoisett Grange sponsors a community sing every Monday afternoon led by Walter E. Caswell who plays the reed organ. Mr. Caswell also plays the organ for the worship service held each Thursday afternoon by the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur R. Lundberg of the Rochester Congregational Church.

On Tuesday those able to be out are taken for automobile rides. On Wednesday afternoon an arts and crafts class is conducted by Mrs. Joseph Mendes, a former art supervisor. A combo of high school pupils, the Quadrilles, entertain on Thursday nights. They are William Arral, drums; Joseph Zychowicz and Paul Bieringer, guitars; and Philip Fisher, saxophone

A birthday party is held on the last Friday of each month for all those who have birthdays during the month. For an organization that has not as yet offered its services, this is an opportunity to take care of decorations and refreshments.

WAREHAM WINS CRANBERRY BOWL

Wareham High School's football team won the cranberry bowl in a hard fought game played on the Old Rochester field Saturday afternoon. The score was 7 to 0 with the only touchdown of the game coming in the fourth period of play.

The bowl was presented to Walter Longmore, principal of Wareham High School, at the annual Cranberry Ball Saturday night held in the cafeteria of the Old Rochester Regional High School. Highlight of the ball was the crowning of the Cranberry Bowl Queen, Miss Brenda Kinney, of Mattapoisett and a student at the Old Rochester Regional High School. She was crowned by last year's queen, Sheila Parker of Wareham. Runner-up was Aldora Mendes of Rochester, also a student at Old Rochester. Other girls competing for the title included Nancy Nelson of Marion, a student at Old Rochester; Kathy Bumpus, Debbie Patten and Roseann DeGrenier, all of Wareham and students at Wareham High School.

A pancake festival held at noon in the Old Rochester cafeteria completed the day.

4-H SURVEY IN AREA TOWNS

4-H Club Surveys are being conducted this month in the towns of Wareham, Lakeville, Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester, following approval by school authorities.

The surveys, conducted by the 4-H Department of the Plymouth County Extension Service, will show present interest in 4-H Club Work by boys and girls in grades three through eight. Also, they will indicate interest by parents in leading new 4-H clubs in the area.

The survey consists of a letter to parents telling of the 4-H projects available and a brief description of the 4-H club organization. Also, a card is provided for the parent and member to complete and return to the county 4-H office, indicating the extent of interest in 4-H Club work. It is hoped that several new 4-H Clubs will be organized in each town surveyed.

The 4-H Club Agents urge adults interested in working with 4-H Clubs, or in learning more about the 4-H Club program to contact the 4-H Club Office, Court House, Brockton, Mass., phone 586-4993.

WATER RIGHTS TO BE DISCUSSED

Rochester residents are notified that a meeting to discuss the water resources in the town will be held at the Rochester Woman's Club this Wednesday evening, November 4th, at 8:00 P.M. All Rochester residents are urged to attend. The Board of Selectmen have been invited to explain their future plans with regard to Rochester water interests. At the annual Town Meeting last March it was voted to appoint a water study commission and subsequently Douglas Church, Henry B. Smith and Willard Langill were appointed by the Selectmen. The Board of Selectmen in Marion, upon their request, has been given permission to attend this meeting and give their reasons for wishing to acquire more water rights for Marion from the town of Rochester in addition to that land already acquired by eminent domain thru an act passed in 1927. Mr. Malcolm Graf from the Division of Massachusetts Resources Commissions will be present. Leonard Dodge will be the moderator. A question and answer period will follow.
